

ROLE OF THE SBCC CLUB ADVISOR

Club and Organization advisors can be faculty, adjunct faculty, classified staff or managers who volunteer, out of interest and dedication, giving their time and talents to the out-of-class program. Students should realize that Advisors are not assigned, nor are they compensated for their participation. Much of the success enjoyed by the clubs and organizations at Santa Barbara City College is directly related to the interest and efforts of advisors. Advisors provide the basic orientation to and continuity for the club program. In a two-year college where the student body turnover rate can be almost 60% each year, the clubs and organizations are highly dependent on the advisor to provide knowledge, guidance, and direction as the new members try to carry on the activities, traditions, and services of the group.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE ADVISOR:

1. Advisors are responsible for proper supervision of any meeting and/or activity staged by the group with which they are working. Experience has shown that the most effective campus groups are those whose meetings are regularly attended by the advisor. Although the students should be encouraged to provide their own momentum, they are the first to point out that they need a guiding hand from time to time.
2. Advisors should play an active role in helping the students set up a meaningful program that is consistent with the purposes of the group and with the aims of higher education.
3. Advisors should encourage the development of initiative, responsibility, and leadership in the student members. Holding a Club office can be a rewarding experience if students learn to take on responsibility and learn something about dealing with people.
4. Advisors should supervise financial transactions, the handling of Club funds, and the maintenance of financial records. The Student Finance Office and the Office of Student Life assists by maintaining all accounts for clubs and organizations. Expenditures cannot be made without the approval of the advisor and no off- campus accounts are permitted.

5. The Club Advisor must be present at all meetings held in campus classrooms, events, programs, field trips; conferences etc. (on campus and off campus) and must properly supervise these events from beginning to end.
 - a. Additional employees may share supervision on a limited basis and will need to be named on the club roster.
 - b. Responsibility for supervision extends from the beginning to the end of each event.
6. Advisors must accompany club members to conferences and be responsible for the student's supervision. Field Trip forms must be filled out and completed.
7. Advance approval from the Office of Student Life must be obtained for any deviation of these rules.
